Robinson, and evidence both oral and documentary having been adduced and presented on behalf of all the parties to said action and the same having been submitted to the court for its consideration and decision, and the court having filed its opinion and order for findings and judgment, and the parties to this action having thereafter stipulated and agreed that the court shall have authority to enter a judgment and decree herein which shall be competent to adjudicate the entire water right of each and every party subscribed with like effect as if the pleadings in said suit embraced issues of the relative rights of all parties and of each and every party irrespective of status as plaintiffs or defendants, and that the court shall have authority to enter a judgment and decree based upon the provisions so stipulated and agreed to and said stipulation being comprised of five identical documents each of said documents being signed by different parties and said stipulation being annexed hereto as Exhibit "A" and said documents comprising said stipulation being marked Part 1, Part 2, Part 3, Part 4, and Part 5 respectively, and said stipulation being made a part hereof, and findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived by said stipulation and it further appearing that said stipulation is signed by all of the parties who have appeared in this action or by their successors in interest and also by their counsel and that said parties who have signed said stipulation are the owners of the rights as agreed upon and set forth in said stipulation, and it further appearing as follows:

(1) That Fannie D. McClintock and Frank McClintock, her husband, and Frankie H. McClintock have sold, transferred and disposed of their interests in the property involved in said action to John C. Ennis and Fannie P. Ennis and that said Ennis' are now the real parties in interest in lieu of said McClintocks;

(2) That the interests of Lou West, deceased, in the property involved in this action have been distributed to her heirs, to wit,

J. P. West, Jackson C. West and Nevada Loraine Huston;

(3) That the rights set forth in the stipulation hereinabove referred to and annexed hereto and made a part hereof, as belonging to the Cummins estate are owned by C. E. Cummins, T. D. Cummins, Mae C. Worley, Leonora Caldwell, Ada McCullough, J. P. West, Jackson C. West, and Nevada Loraine Huston;

(4) That R. E. Allen is one and the same person as Rollen E. Allen, a minor;

(5) That the interests of J. C. Allen, deceased, in the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of Sec. 34, Tp. 41 N, R 16 E, M.D.M. have been acquired by Walter Malitz through decree of distribution to the heirs and deeds from said heirs.

(6) That the interests of J. C. Allen, deceased, in all rights involved in this action other than those acquired by Walter Malitz have been distributed to and are owned by W. I. Allen, sometimes known as Wiley Allen.

(7) That Bertha Allen, surviving wife of J. C. Allen, deceased, has no interest in any of the rights involved in this action.

(8) That Sylvester Allen and Grace Allen, his wife, have disposed of their interests in all rights involved in this action to W. I. Allen, and Mayme F. Allen, his wife.

(9) That Mildred M. Allen, formerly the wife of James Ira Allen, deceased, has married C. A. Larimore and is now Mildred M. Larimore.

(10) That Rollen E. Allen, a minor, hereinabove referred to as R. E. Allen, is the son of James Ira Allen, deceased, and Mildred M. Larimore;

(11) That the interest of Mildred M. Larimore and her son Rollen E. Allen, a minor, in the estate of J. C. Allen, deceased, have been acquired by W. I. Allen and have been transferred by W. I. Allen to Walter Malitz;

(12) That H. D. Cook has died since the commencement of this action and that by decrees of distribution and conveyances made the rights of said H. D. Cook, deceased, and Roy Cook, deceased, involved in this action have become vested in and are now owned by Lyle Cook, now of age; Ferne Cook Rowe, formerly Ferne Cook and now married and of age; Madge Cook Dorris, formerly Madge Cook and now married and of age; and Carol Cook, Elmer Cook, and Neal Cook, who are minors under the care and guardianship of Lyle Cook;

(13) That Henry Stiner is dead and that his surviving wife, Jessie H. Stiner is the owner of the rights set forth under her name in said stipulation;

(14) And that Jennie Arreche was formerly Jennie Laxague and is the owner of the rights set forth under her name in said stipulation;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED
AS FOLLOWS:

That said rights in this paragraph adjudged and decreed are subject to and inferior to all rights in this decree hereinbefore adjudged and decreed, but are superior to all rights hereinafter adjudged and decreed, and the said rights in this paragraph adjudged and decreed are on an equality as to point of time and priority and superiority and if, at any time, there is insufficient water to supply all prior rights hereinbefore adjudged and decreed and to fully supply the rights in this paragraph adjudged and decreed, that then and at such time the parties in this paragraph named shall pro-rate the water, if any, which may be flowing in said Owl Creek in excess of all prior rights, and such pro-ration shall be on the basis that their respective rights bear to the aggregate of their joint rights in this paragraph decreed.

(38th) That subject to the rights hereinbefore adjudged and decreed, John C. Ennis and Fannie P. Ennis, jointly, are the owners of the twenty-first right in and to the waters of said Owl Creek, and in and to the use thereof during the period from January first to December thirty-first, inclusive, of each and every year, in the amount of 1.06 cubic feet per second, for use upon their lands so heretofore irrigated and hereinbefore described, to be diverted and used through either the McClintock Ditch or the Old Channel, or in part through both of said conduits, which said right is inferior to all rights in this decree hereinbefore adjudged and decreed.

(39th) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the points of measurement of all allotments in this decree adjudged and decreed shall be at the respective points of diversion from said Owl Creek.

(40th) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that no party herein adjudged and decreed a right to divert water shall divert from said Owl Creek at any time, a quantity of water in excess of the quantity reasonably necessary for his requirements and being put to beneficial use by said party.

(41st) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each and every party to this action, his or her agents, successors, grantees and assigns, be, and they are hereby perpetually enjoined and restrained from doing anything in violation of the terms or provisions of this decree, and particularly from diverting any water from said Owl Creek in excess of the amount or amounts awarded or decreed to said person, or diverting any water from said Owl Creek at any time in violation of the terms hereof, or from doing anything that will obstruct or interfere with any other right in this decree adjudged and decreed.

(42nd) IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the owners of every ditch through which water is diverted from Owl Creek as herein provided, shall install in or for their respective ditches, prior to July 1, 1929, or such later date as may be ordered by this court, such permanent headgates and measuring devices as shall be required and approved by the Division of Water Rights of the Department of Public Works of the State of California, and that said ditch owners shall furnish all materials and labor necessary for such installations in or for their respective ditches and that all costs and expenses incurred by said Division of Water Rights, in supervising such installations shall be borne by the respective ditch owners in proportion to the amounts of water herein allotted to them through their said respective ditches.

(43rd) Finally, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Division of Water Rights of the Department of Public Works of the State of California, as said Division of Water Rights is now or may hereafter be constituted, or the successor of said Division of Water Rights that may hereafter be vested with the power of administration of the Water Commission Act, shall administer the diversions of water from said Owl Creek whenever, and at all times when in the judgment of said Division of Water Rights such administration may be necessary in order to insure strict adherence to the provisions of this decree, and that in exercising such administration of said diversions said Division of Water Rights may appoint and employ a properly qualified water master to control and regulate said diversions as an employee and under the general supervision and control of said Division of Water Rights, and that such water master when so appointed and employed shall have the power and authority to apportion the waters of said Owl Creek among the various conduits to which water is herein adjudged and decreed, in accordance with the provisions of this decree, and to so adjust, regulate, or close the headgates or controlling works of said conduits as may be necessary to insure a distribution of the waters of said Owl Creek in accordance with the provisions of this decree; and that all costs and expenses incurred by said Division of Water Rights in administering diversions from said Owl Creek as in this paragraph provided, shall be borne by the parties hereto in the proportions that the respective total quantities of water herein allotted and decreed to each bear to the total of all quantities of water herein allotted and decreed.

Done in open court this 29th day of April, 1929.

H. D. BURROUGHS

Judge of said Superior Court.
